

Turner County 4-H Leaders invite you to the

Turner County Livestock Judging Clinic

Tuesday, June 5, 2012
Turner County Fairgrounds
Parker, South Dakota

Join us for learning sessions for all ages on:

- Note taking, Questions and Oral Reasons
- Market and Breeding Beef, Sheep and Swine

Sessions will be led by Kelly Bruns, SDSU, Adam Wirt, Sarah Baloun, Cory and Melissa Schrag and others. Livestock sessions will be broken down into age appropriate sessions for beginners, juniors and seniors.

Schedule:

5 - 5:15 p.m. - Registration

5:15-6 p.m. - Note taking, questions, oral reasons

6 p.m. - light supper

6:30 - 8 p.m. - Half Hour Rotations each on beef, sheep and swine.

There is no fee to attend. Pre-registration is encouraged at the Turner County Extension Office - 297-3112 or turner.county@sdsu.edu.

Please bring along a small notebook and pencils with you.

Sponsors are the Turner County Pork Producers and Turner County Beef Producers Organizations.

The Clover Kids and Northlanders 4-H Clubs will be hosting a 4-H livestock judging contest on Tuesday, June 12th with registration beginning at 6 p.m. at Parker at the Turner County Fairgrounds.

If you need accommodations for a disability to fully participate in this program, please contact the Turner County Extension Office at 297-3112.